

Subject: - ToRs for the PRSP-Community Primary Schools (CPS) Study

- To would conduct formal achievement test, impact evaluation, of the selected CPS's Children as compared to Government Primary School's Children.
- To evaluate the entire process / governance mechanism of the CPS by PRSP and would identify areas of improvement in the Governance Process Mechanism.
- To evaluate the quality of education delivery vis-à-vis Physical Environment, Student Teacher Ratio and Teaching Quality.
- Cost analysis of the CPS as compared to Government Primary Schools and suggestions, based on field analysis, for financial sustainability of the CPS.
- Gender aspects of the project with respect to enrolment, teacher hiring and providing primary education facility to out of school / drop out children.
- The evaluation study would identify the social impact of the project while focusing on increasing social awareness among the parents in particular and among the local community at large regarding importance of primary education for both boys and girls.
- Overall SWOT Analysis of the CPS intervention by PRSP and CPS model capacity to replicate in other parts of the country.